

Since "donotcall" went into effect my house is significantly calmer! The phone hardly rings and it is rarely an unsolicited call. Our family can eat dinner without annoying disturbing phone calls. And on Saturday, our Sabbath, we can rest without interruption. I only wish the charities would also stop calling. Thank you for fighting for the privilege of not being annoyed at home, strange as that sounds.